Comments

For every sprint, our team plans to reach a planned velocity of 40 story points (8 points per each team member). Sprint 1, the previous sprint, had a velocity that ended up being 37 story points of tasks. During Sprint 2, we were able to complete 27 story points worth of tasks. Our velocity was lower than anticipated due to school work and midterms during the time the sprint occurred. This is also the explanation for having the peak of the sprint 2 burndown chart starting on July 4th rather than Jun 26th.
